New Real Estate Agency.

Real Estate Agencies are the life of development in many essential features, as landed property is brought to bear upon its progress. To the better and more valuable properties their intermediary offices come into good action just as they do in finding out and making known the values of others not so apparent.

The new Real Estate Agency of Thos. C. Elder and Fitz. Elder as, Thos. C. Elder & Son, at the law offices of the Senior 103 South Augusta street, is a continuation of the agency long conducted by Major Elder, in which Mr. Fitz Elder will devote his whole time and energies. Here are full assurences of proper attention to business which will be advantageous to persons having property they wish to sell.
